VII. REPORTS

- A. Superintendent Dr. DeNobile Family wellness day- what a tremendous endeavor. 160 people registered. Those that were here benefited from this program. Vanessa Aiello at the helm, thank you, great job. All that volunteered thank you. Sincere gratitude to the RPEA for their support that day as well. It solidifies to the community how we work as a group. Extended School Day program will be starting soon. That is a grant-based program. NJSLA testing will be held this spring. We have implemented a prep program. Next month we will be honoring 2nd marking period honor roll students.
- B. Business Administrator Dr. Riley thanked everyone for the warm welcome. The budget calendar has been shared with the Board and will be voted on at tonight's meeting. It's been great getting to know everyone and learning the processes.

- C. Director of Curriculum and Instruction – Mrs. Hurd presented the 2022 Fall Start Strong Assessment State Testing Results. These results need to be presented to the public by law. Presentation will be on the website. In addition, the Extended School Year program will focus on grades 3-8 ELA & Math, reinforcement of skills for testing. Testing period is short this year only during the month of May, very tight schedule.
- D. Principal Mr. Alberta – Holiday concert thank you Ms. Baker and Mr. Kemp. Students did a wonderful job. Wellness day was Saturday, it was great approx. 80 students in grades PreK-5. Health Barn was one of the vendors, they made healthy smores. Thank you, Mrs. Aiello and the 15 staff members who helped as well thank you.
Board of Education members were also in attendance and commented on how well the event went. The students were so excited, Teachers were awesome. Great Event.
Mr. Alberta preceded to announce the National Junior Honor Society Induction will be held on February 7th and the Book Fair will start the week of February 6th. He reminded parents to have the students dress according for the weather and please label jackets and hats with the student's name. We have a number of coats in the lost and found. Lastly as a reminder if your child is sick please make sure you call the school to report your child's absence.

IX. Items for Board Action-Resolutions

New Jersey School Board Recognition Month

WHEREAS, the New Jersey State Board of Education, which adopts the administrative code to implement state education law, has established rigorous standards through its promulgation of the New Jersey Student Learning Standards, which set the expectations of academic achievement for nearly 1.4 million public school children; and

WHEREAS, New Jersey's locally elected and appointed boards of education play a vital role in ensuring that their local school districts meet state standards and adhere to state and federal education statute and regulations, with the goal of preparing all students for college and the workplace, thereby enabling them to compete in a global economy; and

WHEREAS, New Jersey's 5,000 non-partisan local board of education members and charter school trustees are public servants who dedicate their time, without pay or benefit, to the oversight of school district operations, sound financial practices, comprehensive policies, curriculum, staffing, and the well-being and academic achievement of all students in the district; and

WHEREAS, the efforts of local boards of education, in conjunction with state education officials and local educators, have built a foundation of success that has led to New Jersey's status as a leader in student achievement, as evidenced by the National Assessment of Educational Progress scores; and

WHEREAS, the National School Boards Association and the New Jersey School Boards Association have declared January 2023 to be School Board Recognition Month; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the New Jersey State Board of Education and the Acting Commissioner of Education recognizes the contributions of our state's local boards of education to the academic success of its public-school students and expresses its sincere appreciation to local board of education members for their continued focus on the achievement of children throughout New Jersey; and be it further

RESOLVED, that the New Jersey State Board of Education and the Acting Commissioner of Education encourages qualified New Jersey citizens to consider serving as members on their local school boards.

Mrs. Judge Cravello stated it's an honor and privilege to serve on this board. President Trawinski thanked the board members for their dedication. It's a pleasure working with you.

Dr. DeNobile added that every component of operation of this district happens because of the support from this board. Thank you, for trusting in me in my position and for all that you do. Please accept this small token for all your hard work. It's a pleasure to work with you.
